Universal Orlando to build 5th resort

ORLANDO — A fifth mega-hotel is being built at Universal Orlando.

The theme park resort announced the plans Tuesday with Loews Hotels & Resorts, which will build and operate the 1,000-room, Caribbean-themed hotel.

The Loews Sapphire Falls Resort will open in the summer of 2016.

Once the new resort is constructed, Universal Orlando will have more than 5,200 hotel rooms at the Florida property.

5 students hurt in school bus crash

collided near Tampa.

Hillsborough County Sheriff's officials say at least 17 students and both bus drivers reported minor injuries. Many of them were taken to Tampa General Hospital Wednesday morning.

Officials say about 50 students were on the buses when the chain-reaction accident occurred. Deputies say a pick-up truck pulling a trailer stopped
